(F0521) NFA Executive Skills Series: Exercising Leadership to Facilitate Adaptive Change 18-015

Dates: January 13-14, 2018
Location: Central Mat-Su Emergency Services
Wasilla, Alaska

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The purpose of this two-day course is to provide skills that individuals in positions of authority can use to exercise leadership when confronted with adaptive challenges. The goal of this course is for participants to develop an understanding of skills associated with exercising leadership to resolve adaptive problems, those problems where the solution is either unknown or requires significant change, or both.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

The primary target audience is fire and emergency service personnel in positions of authority (executive level officers) who have an opportunity to exercise leadership. Note: Participants must be minimally assigned to a supervisory level position (for example, a Company Officer).

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Course materials will be provided to registered students at the beginning of class. 100% attendance and participation is required. The student or his/her sponsoring agency is responsible for all costs for transportation, food and lodging.

Each student needs to obtain a Student Identification Number (SID) prior to attending a NFA course. Please follow the link for more information:
